

Sir,

My grand-children are not allowed easy access to the internet. For this reason I print off your 'Tales for Kids' and read them aloud at bed-time. I thought you might like to know that they are greatly enjoyed, although the children wish the individual chapters were longer.

Yours faithfully, Stephens, Castle Brimpton.